

HOLD UP JEWELLER IN STORE BEFORE PASSING CROWD

With Drawn Revolvers Robbers Back Out of Place and Make Escape.

Detectives to-day sought two armed robbers who last night robbed the jewelry store of Louis Price at No. 170 Broadway, Williamsburg, after holding the proprietor at bay with revolvers and beating William J. Scharen, an aged optician employed by Price. Price was in his place of business alone when two men, both wearing brown caps and overcoats, came in the door.

"Like to look at some of your small rings," spoke up one of the men and he pointed to a tray in a rear show case. "These are about what we want."

Price stooped to open the case. As he looked up he felt a revolver pressing against his cheek and heard a whisper: "You make any outcry now and I'll blow your head off."

From where the jeweller stood persons passing on the street could see him through the front windows, and at that time the sidewalk was well filled. The second man looked at the front door and made as though he would look in, but on second thought he returned to the rear of the store and said to his companion:

"Kill him if he makes a squeal. I'll do the rest of the job."

The man then went behind the counter and began putting articles of jewelry in his pocket. All the while keeping a sharp watch on the front door.

William J. Scharen, an optician in Price's employ, came from the rear room and was ordered to hold up his hands. The optician who is old and feeble, raised his hands.

For several minutes the man searched the showcases. Scharen's arms became tired and he could hold one of them up no longer. He let the arm drop. The man behind the counter leaped out at him and with the butt of his revolver beat him into insensibility. As the old man fell to the floor the robbers went behind the showcase again and stuffed his pockets with valuables. He told his companion to "back out" and called to Price as he reached the door: "Try to follow us if you want to die."

The robbers, their revolvers drawn and now in full flight of persons on the sidewalk, backed out the front door into the street and ran down Broadway to Rockaway avenue, then turning and running into Bainbridge street, where they disappeared.

ANNUAL DINNER OF THE NASSAU ROD AND GUN CLUB.

The annual dinner of the Nassau Rod and Gun Club held last evening at the "J. G. R." on West Twenty-fifth street was one of the most enjoyable ever held by this south shore association. There was a good representation of members and their guests. President George M. Hayner, ex-Presidents William J. Whitney and H. Willard Griffiths, Secretary Philip Hauser and several other members made short speeches, and two musical numbers also added to the pleasure of the occasion.

MYSTERY IN FATAL HURT.

Henry J. Muller of No. 190 East avenue, an "L" train guard, is unconscious and unable to clear the mystery of the injuries which may result in his death in Lincoln Hospital. He was said to be in a dying condition this morning.

Muller was on the rear platform of a northbound Third avenue express train yesterday afternoon. Just as the train drew into the One Hundred and Thirty-third street station the passengers heard a crash on the rear platform. Morris Cantor and Walter Lavender opened the rear door and found Muller stretched out on the floor of the platform. His left leg had been crushed and he was injured about his head and face.

It was impossible to determine just how Muller came by his injuries.

Peculiar After Effects of Grip This Year.

Leaves Kidneys in Weakened Condition.

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are very distressing and leave the system in a run down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer most, as every victim complains of lamp back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to more serious sickness, such as dreaded Bright's Disease. Local druggists report a large sale of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample bottle of Swamp Root, free by mail, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles 50 cts. and $1.00. For sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper.

McEntire, a member of the board of trustees of the association.

FAMILY OVERCOME BY GAS.

Baby Dead in Bed With Parents, Who, With Other Child, May Live.

ATLANTIC CITY, Feb. 16.—After lying helpless in a gas filled room in a semi-conscious condition since Tuesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin were rescued from the second floor of their home, No. 406 North Massachusetts avenue, to-night. Helen, a baby daughter, who was in the bed with them, was dead. Catherine, another child, was found in a crib beside the bed, barely alive.

The family became helpless from the fumes which leaked from a defective heater and had given up hope of rescue when it arrived. Weak from their terrible ordeal, they were taken out by neighbors, who had investigated after becoming alarmed. The family was sent to the City Hospital. Physicians there say the parents and child have a bare chance of recovery.

Not Fred Stone's Brother.

It was learned to-day that George Stone, the comedian who killed Max Abbott at Cincinnati yesterday, is not related to Fred Stone, the comedian of "Wizard of Oz" fame. Fred Stone has but one brother, Paul, and he resides in Freeport, L. I. The Stone who is under arrest for murder is from Philadelphia and his real name is George McBride.

WORLD WANTS WORK WONDERS.

WOMAN SICK TWELVE YEARS

Wants Other Women to Know How She Was Finally Restored to Health.

Louisiana, Mo.—"I think a woman naturally dislikes to make her troubles known to the public, but complete restoration to health means so much to me that I cannot keep from telling mine for the sake of other suffering women."

"I had been sick about twelve years, and had eleven doctors. I had dragging down pains, and was getting worse all the time. I would hardly get over one spell when I would be sick again. No tongue can tell what I suffered from cramps, and at times I could hardly walk. The doctors said I might die at one of those times, but I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got better right away. Your valuable medicine is worth more than mountains of gold to suffering women."

—Mrs. BERTHA MUFF, 303 N. 4th Street, Louisiana, Mo.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
